PEREZ D'ALECCIO'S MASTERPIECE

The completion of the conservation project of the Perez D'Aleccio masterpiece in the Grand Master's Palace Throne Room brings with it pride and satisfaction. Since 2018, RIDT raised funds for the University of Malta conservation team. The last generous donation which ensured the completion of the project came from The Planning Authority.

ARE YOU A MEMBER OF STAFF?

The Staff Contribution Scheme for the University of Malta and Junior College staff members was launched by the RIDT in January 2015. Staff members are encouraged, on a voluntary basis, to make a regular donation of a small amount of money which will be automatically deducted before tax from their salaries. The monthly donations will go towards more research studies across all faculties and departments.
